BAFOKENG ROYAL FAMILY & NORTH WEST PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT AGREE ON FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR QUEEN MOTHER

Following consultation between the North West Provincial Government and the Bafokeng Royal Family regarding funeral arrangements for Her Royal Majesty, Queen Mother of the Royal Bafokeng Nation, Dr Semane Bonolo Molotlegi, it has been agreed that the Queen Mother will not be accorded a Provincial Official Funeral.

The Royal Family and members of Kgotla ya Kgosing are deeply appreciative of the offer of a Provincial Official Funeral, made on behalf of the province by the Honourable Premier, Professor Tebogo Job Mokgoro.

Premier Mokgoro recently visited the Royal Family to pay his respects, to convey a message of condolence on behalf of the provincial government, and to wish the Royal Family and the Bafokeng Nation strength and comfort.

About the Royal Bafokeng Nation

The Royal Bafokeng Nation (RBN) is a traditional African community of approximately 150,000 people in the North West Province of South Africa, known for its platinum reserves.
